S. D. OF FLA. - WPB

ORDER OF SUSPENSION

On October 22, 2026, the Supreme Court of Florida suspended Daniel Foster Dickenson from the practice of law. See Fla. Bar v. Dickenson, No. SC2026-1552, 2026 WL 3182442, at *1 (Fla. Oct. 22, 2026). The suspension was predicated on a Conditional Guilty Plea for Consent Judgment [ECF No. 2] Mr. Dickenson entered in connection with a conflict of interest in managing his trust account. (See generally id.). In a November 21, 2026 email [ECF No. 3], Mr. Dickenson notified the Court of his suspension and provided a copy of the Supreme Court of Florida's order suspending him from the Florida Bar. (See generally id.).

Under Rule 9(b) of the Southern District of Florida Local Rules Governing the Admission, Practice, Peer Review, and Discipline of Attorneys ("Attorney Rules"), attorneys who are disbarred on consent by the bar of any other court, while an investigation into allegations of misconduct is pending, are no longer allowed to practice before this Court and are to be stricken from the roll of attorneys admitted to practice before this Court until further order. See id. When an attorney is suspended on consent, service of an order to show cause is unnecessary, and the attorney may be suspended immediately. See generally id. R. 9.

Therefore, under Attorney Rule 9(b) and the Court's inherent authority to oversee membership in its bar and safeguard the public interest, see Chambers v. NASCO, Inc., 501 U.S. 32, 43 (1991) (recognizing that "a federal court has the power to control admission to its bar and to discipline attorneys who appear before it" (citation omitted)), it is

ORDERED as follows:

1. Mr. Dickenson is suspended from the practice of law in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Florida, effective immediately. He may not resume practice before this Court unless and until reinstated by court order. See S.D. Fla. Att'y R. 12(a).

2. Within fourteen (14) days of receipt of this Order, Mr. Dickenson shall notify the Clerk of Court of any active cases where he appears as counsel or co-counsel of record in this District.

3. The Clerk shall STRIKE Mr. Dickenson from the roll of attorneys authorized to practice before this Court and to immediately revoke his CM/ECF credentials.

4. The Clerk shall promptly attempt service of this Order via certified mail to Mr. Dickenson's court record address and any addresses on file with the Florida Bar.

DONE AND ORDERED in Miami, Florida, this 24th day of November, 2026.
