

NOTICE TO ATTORNEYS: FEES RELATED TO NOTICES OF APPEAL EFFECTIVE JUNE 1, 2012

Effective June 1, 2012, attorneys authorized to file electronically via CM/ECF in the Southern District of Florida, will be able to file notices of appeal electronically via CM/ECF and at the same time, pay any related fees via CM/ECF.

During the month of June, attorneys have the option to electronically file notices of appeal and pay any related fees via CM/ECF - or - file notices of appeal in the conventional manner and pay related fees by check or credit card.

Effective July 1, 2012, attorneys will be required to file notices of appeal electronically and will be required to pay any related fees via CM/ECF at the time the notice is filed electronically.

Note: pro se parties must continue to file notices of appeal conventionally and pay related fees via check or credit card.