CASE NO: 11-60557-CIV-JORDAN
Magistrate Judge P.A. WHITE

AFFIDAVIT OF KATHLEEN CASEY

STATE OF FLORIDA)
)ss
COUNTY OF BROWARD)

I, KATHLEEN CASEY, who after being duly sworn in and cautioned upon his oath does hereby swear and /or affirm that:

1. I understand the meaning of this affidavit and have personal knowledge of the facts contained herein.

2 My name is KATHLEEN CASEY and I am currently a civilian employee of the Broward Sheriff's Office were I have worked for the last 9 years and 3 months.

3. My current capacity is that I am the duly authorized acting Coordinator and Records Custodian for the Broward Sheriff's Office Enterprise Technology Division that does encompass all aspects of inmate phone calls and records within the Department of Detention.

4. My job as Detention Communications Coordinator and Records Custodian entails all aspects of maintaining, storing and retrieving inmate phone records made within the Broward County Jail System.

5. I am fully aware in every aspect of both the physical process of how the records are made and then how they are kept, stored and relieved related to inmate phone calls.

6. The Broward Sheriff's Office has an process in place regarding inmate phone calls outlined in the Inmate handbook, on the BSO website and explained by an automated attendant message at the beginning of every call. (See exhibit "A" attached hereto, page 7 of the handbook).

7. Upon being booked into the Broward County Jail all, inmates are assigned an arrest number that also serves as their personal identification number ("PIN") for purposes of making phone calls. The BSO Jails have an automated phone system operated in conjunction with an outside vendor (T-Netix) that allows the inmates' calls to be catalogued, blocked, recorded and opted out of recording with attorneys.

8. The process is set up so that inmate calls to the Broward Public Defenders Office and all Dade, Broward and Palm Beach County private attorneys' Florida Bar registered numbers are automatically opted out and not recorded or monitored whatsoever. The system prevents it.

9. Additionally, Private attorneys anywhere may also call T-Netix at the number given by the automated attendant to register and opt out of the recording process so that the system will recognize their number(s) as registered to an attorney.

10. Registered numbers are not recorded, or even prompted for consent to record as the system will not allow it. All other calls, including unregistered attorney numbers, are subject to recording and require consent granted through the use of the automated attendant feature, by both parties. (inmate and call recipient) pressing an acceptance key to continue the call.

11. All inmate calls must be made collect. When the inmate call is answered, the automated attendant announces that it is a collect call from a correctional institution, provides the cost of the call, and informs both parties the information that if they press "0" to continue the call it will be subject to recording. If they do not consent to the recording by pressing "0" to continue the call, the call is disconnected.

12. The automated attendant message regarding the notice and consent to record is played on every call that is made to a non-registered phone number. The message is not played on a registered number as the system prevents recording of registered numbers.

13. It is not possible for the system to record a call without both parties pressing the "0" key to consent after the message prompt.

14. I can testify conclusively that neither the system itself or any person did or could have recorded any of Mr. Stickney's telephone conversations with anyone, including any attorney, unless he pressed "0" to consent to the call being recorded.

15. I have never met Frederick Stickney, did not know him, or of him until I received a request to make a copy of all his inmate calls that were automatically recorded by the system. Nothing was done out of the ordinary, or to single him out. The automated attendant does not know who is on the other line for a non-registered number and will record the call if both parties consent after the warning message.

16. My job description requires me to respond to thousands of requests per year for inmate phone records made from multiple different police agencies, prosecutors and governmental agencies.

17. As it relates to Mr. Stickney, I simply pulled up his calls within the computer database that were already recorded through the T-netix system and then made an after the fact audio CD for Detective Faircloth upon his request. I had no further involvement, did not do anything out of the ordinary except to fulfill my job duties and made copies of calls that were previously recorded by the T-netix phone system because the callers followed the prompts to continue and consent to the calls.

18. Detective Faircloth did not and could not cause the tape recording of any of Mr. Stickney's inmate phone calls as he does not work in the jail, but instead and like many detectives simply requested copies of all calls that were captured by the T-netix system through the consent prompting feature.

19. Lt. Col. Kimberly Spadero, also a named defendant, is a supervisor and had no personal knowledge or involvement in the recording, retrieving, or use of recorded calls of Mr. Stickney. She was completely unaware of anything related to Mr. Stickney.

20. Since this case has been filed, I listened to the tapes of Mr. Stickney and read the transcription filed in support of the motion for summary judgment and can conclusively state that each of the seven recorded calls begins with the automated attendant notifying the parties that if they continue the call by pressing "0" that it will be recorded.

FURTHER AFFIANT SAYETH NAUGHT.

Kathleen Casey/Affiant

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, personally appeared Kathleen Casey who is personally known, and being first duly sworn, deposes and says that she read the foregoing Affidavit and that the same is true and correct.

AFFIDAVIT OF DETECTIVE RONALD FAIRCLOTH

STATE OF FLORIDA)
)ss
COUNTY OF BROWARD)

I, RONALD FAIRCLOTH, who after being duly sworn in and cautioned upon his oath does hereby swear and /or affirm that:

1. I understand the meaning of this affidavit and have personal knowledge of the facts contained herein.

2 My name is RONALD FAIRCLOTH and I am currently employed at the Broward Sheriff's Office were I have worked for the last 7 years.

3. I currently am serving as a Detective with Strategic Investigations Division of the Broward Sheriff's Office, but at the time of this incident I was working as a Detective in the Lauderdale Lakes Criminal Investigations Division regarding Property Crimes.

4. I was assigned to investigate a burglary that took place on January 27, 2010 and learned through the victim what items were stolen, that she believed that the Stickney family were potential suspects; and then I found that Frederick Stickney pawned some of the stolen items the very next day after the Burglary.

5. I learned that Mr. Stickney was in jail and went there to interview him regarding the Burglary and pawned items. The events surrounding my investigation are set forth within my Investigative Action Report attached as Exhibit number five to my Omnibus Notice of Filing Multiple Exhibits in Support of Summary Judgment.

6. As part of my investigation I acquired all Mr. Stickney's inmate jail call records by asking Kathleen Casey to pull up his recorded calls in the system and make an audio CD of all calls.

7. I did not listen in on any of Stickney's calls, and retrieved them all after they were made.

8. It was my understanding that all inmate calls are collect and that the parties have to consent to recording of the call when prompted to press "0" to continue the call. I thought that I would only retrieve calls that were consented to the recording as prompted by the inmate phone call system.

9. I received the tape with seven calls and have also reviewed the transcript of the same calls and, at all times material hereto, every call I ever heard, retrieved or know about has the automated attendant message prompting the parties to press "0" to accept the call, charges and consent to be recording.

10. There was one phone call (call #6) to a Gerald Williams that was an attorney, however none of that information was utilized in Mr. Stickney's prosecution.

11. Lt. Col. Spadero had no personal knowledge of my investigation, the phone records, or recordings, or anything regarding Mr. Stickney's criminal investigation or my request for phone records.
