Position Overview

Conducts selected investigations as needed for pre-release, pre-sentencing, and bail reports under the supervision and direction of a probation officer. Assist probation officers in the performance of investigations, including but not limited to compiling criminal histories/profiles, running record checks through local and national databases and files. Provide officers with verifiable and supportable documentation to assist in completion of pretrial and probation reports. Utilizes principles of Evidence Based Practices to assess risk and criminogenic needs of offenders, and supervises according to these assessments. Develops collaborative relationships with defendants/offenders with a goal of aiding them to successfully complete the term of supervision. Investigates community release plans on persons scheduled for release from federal correctional facilities with supervision terms to follow. Keeps informed on new developments and techniques in the community corrections field, and applies these to the work as desired and needed. Schedule and conduct urinalysis testing of offenders/defendants following established procedures and protocols, and maintain custody chain of custody for urinalysis testing materials. Assist in the development of community resources to meet the special needs of alleged offenders. Observe and report to supervisors on the lifestyle, personal problems, and needs of offenders/defendants. Testify in court proceedings as necessary.

Qualification Requirements
