- (b) Goals of a mediation program;
- (c) Projected budget for cost of a mediation program;
- (d) Cost, if any, to the user of a mediation program;
- (e) Criteria for identifying cases appropriate for referral to mediation;
- (f) Juncture in the respective case when referral to mediation is appropriate;
- (g) Rules governing the mediation;
- (h) Whether the program should be voluntary or mandatory;
- (i) Whether the program should carry incentives for participation;
- (j) Who should administrate the program;
- (k) Where the sessions should be held;
- (l) Who should serve as mediators;
- (m) Who should determine the eligibility of mediators;
- (n) Who should select the mediators;
- (o) Education of the bar and the public about the program;
- (p) Training of mediators;
- (q) Who should collect data for assessment of the program's efficiency;
- (r) Whether mediation should be used in prisoner civil rights cases; and
