THE COURT: Good afternoon, everybody. This is case number 20-2924, In Re: Zantac (Ranitidine) Product Liability Litigation.

1.5

I called this hearing today because there were a number of motions filed in the last couple of days, including an expedited motion, and I know we are heading up on some deadlines and I am going to be out of the office the next two days, so I wanted to make sure I get a chance to hear from you and give you whatever guidance you need from me before we move forward.

Let me start with the Valisure issue. I may have misunderstood what was filed and there may be nothing to do.

I saw a motion come in from Valisure and I started reading it and to quote Yogi Berra, it was deja vu all over again. I was reading it and I'm thinking, didn't I rule on this already?

The more I got into it, it became clear to me what you were doing was simply following my prior order, which was to file a redacted version of what had been submitted under seal prior to the hearing. So, let me -- maybe I can dispose of that aspect pretty quickly.

Mr. Egan, good afternoon.

MR. EGAN: Good afternoon, your Honor.

THE COURT: Is there any objection -- I think what you filed was filed not under seal, it was filed in the public record, so I assume there was no objection to whatever it is that you filed, and to the extent anybody thought there ought to be redactions, those redactions have been made.

MR. EGAN: Yes, your Honor. There are two sets of papers. Our papers went in with agreed upon redactions. The Defendants' papers went in with some agreed upon redactions and some motions to seal from other entities other than Valisure.

THE COURT: I think it was Boehringer Ingelheim that was handling the other side of that transaction. Is that right?

MR. EGAN: I had been dealing with Mr. Oot primarily. I don't know if there is somebody from BI that is handling it.

Your Honor, we have a -- there is separate counsel for Valisure that handles direct specific BI matters. We primarily have been acting as counsel for Valisure with brand Defendants' issues, but to the extent there is any specific BI issue, or to the extent BI needs to be addressed, Attorney Mike Glaser has an appearance in this case and he addresses those issues.

THE COURT: Very well. Mr. Oot, I apologize, I think you were on the other side of the Valisure hearing that I had. Was Memorial Sloan Kettering injected into some of this, Mr. Oot? Because I think they had a separate filing that I saw in the record.

MR. OOT: Correct, your Honor. Patrick Oot for GSK.

At 5270 on the docket, that really explains all of this and where it is, and it should give you a good perspective of where the parties have agreed to some of the redactions and where there are still outstanding disagreement related to MSK and Emery Pharma.

THE COURT: Very good. Mr. Krasnoo, I understand you represent Memorial Sloan Kettering and I saw you had a filing. Has anyone filed a response to your filing, Mr. Krasnoo, or is that something that you are waiting for?

MR. KRASNOO: No, your Honor, no response has come in. We did file that I believe on -- just a couple days ago, so we are awaiting a response.

THE COURT: But all of that -- Mr. Oot, you will be the one responding, I suppose. All of that deals with past documentation, and the only question is should it be sealed or unsealed in the record going forward. Am I right, Mr. Krasnoo?

MR. KRASNOO: Correct, your Honor.

THE COURT: Very good. That is nothing I need to prioritize today. That is not slowing down any aspect of litigation.

MR. EGAN: Yes. One quick addition to that, if I may, your Honor. Emery Pharma also, I believe, has objections to documents that are being submitted as exhibits, but I don't believe they have yet filed a motion to seal. I know that Defense counsel has asked them if they are going to.

If the Court wants to order that they submit that by a certain date, or however you would like to handle that, I think they want to be heard, but I don't know the procedure by which you would like to do that.

THE COURT: I appreciate that, Mr. Egan. Memorial Sloan Kettering filed an objection, so I am not going to rule until I get a response. There's a window of time in there.

Since you seem to be talking to Emery, let Emery know don't sleep on your rights, if they want to file an objection, they need to get that in. I am not going to set a specific deadline, but I do intend to rule promptly once I get a response from GSK. I may have a hearing or I may just rule on the papers.

If you want to be kind to your friends, tell Emery to file what they want to file pretty soon.

Thank you, Mr. Egan.

2.4

MR. EGAN: Thank you.

THE COURT: I think, from my perspective, I now have clarity on the Valisure issues and the MSK issues -- I have to be careful with MSK and GSK. Do any of the parties to that matter, the Valisure, MSK matter, have anything else you need to bring up today?

MR. EGAN: Not with what is before the Court right now. Your Honor had offered the opportunity for Valisure to be awarded the fees and costs and the other side to oppose. That is a motion that will be filed, it is not before you today.

THE COURT: Very good. Thank you. Mr. Oot, anything further on that matter?

2.4

MR. OOT: Your Honor, we will have our opposition on Monday if that is okay with the Court.

THE COURT: That's fine. Like I said, I am taking off the rest of this week, so if it comes in on Monday, I will read it when it comes in. I will excuse the parties to that matter. Thank you all for being here.

The next thing on my shopping list was -- I think it's a similar thing, I think this is just historical. Sanofi filed again some materials that related to a past hearing that I had where I directed them to file something not under seal, or at least redact it and -- good afternoon, Ms. Sharpe.

MS. SHARPE: Good afternoon, your Honor.

THE COURT: I saw in the pleadings that there is a dispute as to what ought to be redacted, what ought not to be redacted. I will rule on that. Am I correct, Ms. Sharpe, that just needs to be briefed out and then I can just rule on it?

MS. SHARPE: Yes, your Honor, that is correct. We filed motions to seal with respect to the PTO 32 submissions of the parties' email preservation issues, and I presume Plaintiffs will be responding to those in due time.

THE COURT: Thank you very much. Again, that is something I need to deal with, but I don't need to deal with today. Thank you, Ms. Sharpe, I will excuse you as well.

Let's turn to one that isn't non time sensitive.

That's the best way to phrase it.

Let's talk about Defense's motion -- I guess, Mr.

Sachse, this is you -- essentially saying that the Plaintiffs haven't given you full expert disclosures relating to Dr.

Najafi. I understand you filed your pleading, obviously it just came in, it asked for expedited treatment.

Ms. Finken, good afternoon. I am not expecting you to respond on the merits at all today. We are just here for scheduling. I wanted to get in quickly and hear from you about a briefing schedule.

So, Ms. Finken, what is your ask in terms of how much time you would like to respond to the motion?

MS. FINKEN: Thanks, Judge Reinhart. Tracy Finken on behalf of Plaintiffs for Ms. Stipes' benefit.

We received the brief last night that was filed, unbeknownst to us that it was going to be filed, and it is a 14-page brief, as your Honor is aware, not a PTO 32 memorandum. We would request a full week to fully respond in opposition to the brief and submit it next Wednesday.

We would be prepared to argue it that afternoon, or as soon as your Honor is ready to argue the motion we would be prepared to do that.

THE COURT: Okay. Let me ask -- I didn't read it carefully, but I did glance at it. I am not sure how much legal briefing I need. It seems that Defendants are saying Rule 26 requires certain disclosures, give us what the rule entitles us to.

Is there going to be a dispute over things that exist that don't have to be turned over, or is the issue going to be they just don't believe me when I tell them I have given them everything that I have?

MS. FINKEN: No, it is a little bit more than that, your Honor. First, we have complied with Rule 26. The experts' reports were disclosed in accordance with the expert report deadline.

After we served our expert reports on February 7th, the Defendants sent us a list in an email of 17 items they requested or information that they requested that's more akin to expert discovery, things like lab notebooks and whatnot that would typically be produced in advance of an expert deposition.

We had a meet and confer with them on February 14th, some of the information of the 17 items had already been provided in the reports, we pointed that out during the course of the meeting. We asked for some clarity on some of the other items that they were requesting, and we offered to produce certain items to them in exchange for mutuality. When their expert reports are disclosed, and to the extent that those items exist, that they would produce them to us as well.

That is how we left it on Monday, February 14th, Valentine's Day.

Several days later, we sent a confirming email that we would provide those laboratory notebooks. We were in the process of obtaining them and needed to review them for privilege and whatnot and we would be producing them, again asking for mutuality and asking for clarification on issues. The next thing we heard was five days later, Monday evening, we got an email from the Defendants that they now reduced their list from 17 requested items to five requested items and that they will be filing a Motion to Compel the next day.

We responded at 9:00 a.m. yesterday morning saying that we had agreed to produce certain items. There were other items that we were seeking clarity on, we had not heard from them, and that we were available to meet and confer on these issues, that we would be open to that, and we did not receive a response at all. We got the motion that was filed after hours yesterday.

So, putting the mutuality aside that we have requested, we still intend to produce the items that we indicated that we would produce. We don't believe that they are Rule 26 disclosure items, but for the sake of transparency and in the interest of expert disclosure, we are going to produce them, and we intend to produce them this week, as soon as we can get through the privilege review process and whatnot.

There are some additional items that were requested that we also had intended to produce and we have been able to discuss with Defendants if they had actually reached out to us instead of filing a motion with a Rule 7.1 certification, which was actually false.

The other items that we are seeking clarity on, we just need clarity from Defendants on what exactly they are looking for. That is something that, once we are able to obtain, we would be able to work with them on getting the items produced rather than spending the time briefing this.

Unfortunately, I think this is a brief and motion practice that is a waste of the Court's time and, unfortunately, you know, I think it is a delay tactic because of the fact that the PTO 65 motion to limit their expert disclosures was denied on Friday and now they are seeking to delay the provision of their expert reports.

THE COURT: Okay. It sounds to me like you have gone from 17 items to five, maybe you all are heading in a collision course to zero, I am hopeful, but you are asking for a week to respond.

Let me turn to Mr. Sachse. I am not asking either side to argue the merits, but is -- maybe this is in your papers, I haven't read them carefully. If it is, I apologize.

Is the issue here that you need this disclosure so that your experts can use this information to prepare their own reports, or is this information that you want to get because you want to use it when you depose the Plaintiffs' experts, or is it both?

2.4

MR. SACHE: Your Honor, for the record, Will Sachse for the Defendants, and I appreciate the admonishment that we are not here to argue the merits. I feel like we got a lot of merits arguments from Ms. Finken.

The answer to your question is both, and to explain that a little bit further, let me give you a little back story.

First of all, we disagree with all of the characterizations that Ms. Finken just outlined about the course of these negotiations. We have been asking for these materials for a long time, since last year. I sent an email to leadership, Plaintiffs' leadership, after we had what I thought was a fairly fruitful meet and confer on the provision of complete testing on the inventory of materials that were samples, and that email went unanswered for a full month.

We never heard anything from them until we got their expert reports. We looked at the expert reports, and when we did and saw Dr. Najafi's report, it does include material that he relied on, but it is our position that it does not include all material that he considered.

We do not have the testing results still, we do not have complete inventory. All of this is outlined in our brief. We did have a meet and confer, as Ms. Finken mentioned, last week. At that point the Plaintiffs' position was that they demanded mutuality, which they interpreted to mean not only mutuality of any testing our experts do turning it over to the Plaintiffs, but also they wanted to reopen fact discovery to get into historic testing that the companies had done in connection with the cause analysis, which your Honor is familiar with. That is a nonstarter.

So, sitting here today, I think the issues are narrowing and maybe further discussions will be helpful and we will be able to avoid a hearing, but I think what I am hearing is that the Plaintiffs continue to have the position that they will only produce testing that was, quote, "relied upon," which we think is cherry picking. We want all testing, all testing that was done, we want all the protocols, we don't want it in summary form. I think the brief clearly lays out exactly what we are looking for.

Now, getting back to the reason we are here today, I think that we are fine with a schedule -- obviously, we want this in advance of March 7th, because our experts deserve the ability to look at the totality of Dr. Najafi's testing and respond to that, criticize that, and that is something -- when I say experts, I am really talking about the experts that respond directly to Dr. Najafi.

This is not the causation experts per se, but that is something I understand, if we need more time, that might not be within the power of this Court to do, but whether it is a brief extension for those chemistry experts to respond or leave to file a supplemental response incorporating the evidence that we receive, if we receive evidence, is something that we will be looking to do down the road.

For purposes of this Court, I think if we are talking about getting a brief Monday, Tuesday, and then having a hearing as soon as practical after that, that would be ideal for us.

THE COURT: Okay. Here is what I am going to do.

Ms. Finken, I will give you until five o'clock next Tuesday, March 1st, to file your response brief, and I will set a hearing for Wednesday, March 2nd, at 3:00 p.m. That will give me the morning to read the brief and do whatever I need to do, and we will go from there, and then I will rule. It will give the Defendants a four-day window to do whatever they need to do.

You all are walking on a razor's edge here because I certainly don't have authority to extend the expert deadlines, and I wouldn't hold my breath that Judge Rosenberg is going to extend them. If it turns out that this is discovery that the Plaintiffs should have given under Rule 26 and they don't give it, they run the risk that Dr. Najafi is going to get struck as an expert. So, I leave that to both of you.

So, we will memorialize those two things. So, five o'clock next Tuesday, the 1st, for the Plaintiffs' response brief, no reply brief, and we will set a hearing for the following day at 3:00 p.m. 1 (Discussion off the record.) 2 THE COURT: We will make it 5:30 on the 2nd for the 3 4 That will give me a little more time to do the 5 research and give Defense a little more time to digest it. 6 In the meantime, you have always done well together, 7 perhaps you can narrow the issues even further. 8 MS. FINKEN: Your Honor, I just want to thank 9 Ms. Stipes for working overtime to help resolve this issue, as she always does, but I suspect that the brief will be mooted by 10 then, to be honest with you. We don't have any intention of 11 12 withholding any information, so I am hopeful that we will have 13 mooted the issue by then and not waste the Court's time. 14 THE COURT: The Court will give you the time you need. 1.5 I am aware of the time sensitivity on both sides to get things moving in this case and keep things moving in this case. 16 17 wanted to get you in today and make sure we all had some 18 deadlines to work with. 19 Mr. Sachse, anything else you wanted to raise on these 20 issues today? MR. SACHE: Nothing today, your Honor. 21 22 THE COURT: Ms. Finken? 23 MS. FINKEN: No, sir. 2.4 I promised the special master and THE COURT:
