Position: Operations Specialist
Ann. No: 2022-CLK-20
Location: West Palm Beach, Florida
Salary: $46,629-$75,821 (CL 25) Commensurate with qualifications and prior federal experience.
Multiple positions may be filled from this vacancy

Position Overview:

Operations Specialist is a generalist position. The incumbent performs work related to the operational case processing activities of the Clerk's Office. The applicant must possess strong customer service skills and have experience receiving and reviewing legal documents, managing records, docketing, performing quality control checks, and processing documents from the inception of a case through the appeals process.

NOTE: The West Palm Beach Division requires additional duties including intake window coverage, cashiering, financial reconciliation, records, and jury management.

Representative Duties:

The incumbent receives and reviews incoming documents to determine conformity with the Local Rules and the Federal Rules of Procedure. All pleadings relating to the jurisdiction of the Court are also examined for compliance with the rules. When conformity with the rules is verified, the incumbent assigns case numbers to new cases; randomly assigns cases to judges; issues required civil processes; routes documents to proper offices or persons when necessary; verifies attorneys' authority to practice before the court; and furnishes information to a wide variety of persons, acting as a customer service representative, by answering inquiries regarding case documents, status, and procedure.

The incumbent opens new cases upon receipt of initiating documents. The individual is responsible for docketing summary entries in the Case Management/Electronic Case Filing system (CM/ECF) of all documents and proceedings. Cases are managed by ensuring all documents are properly scanned, docketed, and appropriately linked by performing quality control checks. Data and related information must be entered and monitored to ensure compliance with the requirements of the Speedy Trial Act. The incumbent closes cases upon receipt of terminating judgments and closing orders and prepares and enters the Clerk's default judgments. Notices, orders, and judgments are transmitted electronically via CM/ECF to the appropriate parties. Case files must be sorted, classified, and recorded timely and accurately. Archived files must be retrieved from the Federal Records Center for copying and inspection when requested by court personnel, attorneys, and others. An automated Records Management System (RMS) is utilized to track the movement of archived items, both in-house and to and from the Federal Records Center.

The incumbent may process notices of appeal and appeal-related documents. The documents received are reviewed to ensure compliance with the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure. District Court personnel, chambers staff, attorneys, U.S. Court of Appeals personnel, and others must be contacted when appellate requirements are not met, preventing appeals from progressing. Appellate case opening documents, certificates of readiness, and records on appeal are prepared and forwarded to the appellate court and the appropriate parties. Conventionally filed appeals are filed, scanned, and accurately entered and recorded into CM/ECF. Due dates for records and appeals to be transmitted to the appellate courts are monitored by the incumbent who will analyze a variety of reports to ensure compliance with filing deadlines. The incumbent answers procedural questions to ensure compliance with the Federal Rules and respond to inquiries of a case. Other duties as assigned.

Qualification Requirements:

Requires at least one year of specialized experience.
