Position: Operations Specialist
Ann. No: 2023-CLK-22
Duty Station: Miami preferred but other locations can be considered for highly qualified applicants and the needs of the court.
Salary: $48,678-$79,142 (CL 25) Commensurate with qualifications and prior federal experience. Multiple positions may be filled from this vacancy.

Position Overview:

“Operations Specialist” is a generalist position. The incumbent performs work related to the operational case processing activities of the Clerk’s Office. The applicant must possess strong customer service skills and have experience receiving legal documents, managing records, docketing, performing quality control checks, and processing documents from the inception of a case through the appeals process.

Representative Duties:

The incumbent receives and reviews incoming documents to determine conformity with the Local Rules and the Federal Rules of Civil and Criminal Procedure. All pleadings relating to the jurisdiction of the Court are also examined for compliance with the rules. When conformity with the rules is verified, the incumbent assigns case numbers to new cases; randomly assigns cases to judges; issues required civil processes; routes documents to proper offices or persons when necessary; verifies attorneys’ authority to practice before the court; and furnishes information to a wide variety of persons, acting as customer service representative, by answering inquiries regarding case documents, status, and procedure.

The incumbent opens cases upon receipt of initiating documents such as a complaint, indictment, information, or petition. Summary entries in the Case Management/Electronic Case Filing system (CM/ECF) of all documents and proceedings, including pleadings, petitions, motions, complaints, hearing minutes, and orders must be made. Cases are managed by ensuring that all documents are properly scanned, docketed, and appropriately linked by performing quality control checks. Speedy Trial Act data and related information must be entered and monitored to ensure compliance with the requirements of the Speedy Trial Act. The incumbent closes cases upon receipt of terminating judgments and closing orders and prepares and enters Clerk’s default judgments. Notices, orders, and judgments are transmitted electronically via CM/ECF to the appropriate parties. Case files must be sorted, classified, and recorded timely and accurately. Archived files must be retrieved from the Federal Records Center for copying and inspection when requested by court personnel, attorneys, and others. An automated Records Management System (RMS) is utilized to track the movement of archived items, both in-house and to and from the Federal Records Center.

The incumbent processes notices of appeal and appeal-related documents. The documents received are reviewed to ensure they meet the requirements of the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure. District Court personnel, chambers staff, attorneys, U.S. Court of Appeals personnel, and others must be contacted when appellate requirements are not met, preventing appeals from moving forward. Appellate case opening documents, certificates of readiness, and the records on appeal are prepared and forwarded to the appellate courts and the appropriate parties. Upon receipt of terminating documents, the appeal is concluded. Conventionally filed appeals are filed, scanned, and accurately entered and recorded into CM/ECF. Due dates for records and appeals to be transmitted to the appellate courts are monitored by the incumbent who will analyze a variety of reports to ensure compliance with filing deadlines. The incumbent answers procedural questions to ensure compliance with the Federal Rules and respond to inquiries of a case. Other duties as assigned.

Qualification Requirements:

Candidates for the Operations Specialist position must have a minimum of one year of specialized experience. Specialized experience is hands-on experience in work more directly related to the duties and responsibilities of the position. Specialized experience is defined as progressive, responsible clerical or administrative experience requiring the regular and recurring application of clerical procedures that demonstrate the ability to apply a body of rules, regulations, directives, or laws and involve the routine use of specialized terminology and automated software and equipment for word processing, data entry or report generation. Such experience is commonly encountered in law firms, legal counsel offices, banking and credit firms, educational institutions, social service organizations, insurance companies, real estate and title offices, and corporate headquarters or human resources/payroll operations. The position requires excellent computer skills, writing skills, and the ability to learn and apply federal and local rules. Experience with a variety of computer software applications (especially legal electronic case management), scanning, and image creation is highly desired. Familiarity with statistics and the creation of statistical reports is desired.

Preferred Experience:

Completion of the requirements for a bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university.

Desirable Characteristics:

The successful candidate should be mature, highly organized, poised, and demonstrate initiative. The candidate must possess tact, good judgment, and always maintain a professional appearance and demeanor. The candidate must also be able to meet the public professionally and courteously, work
