Chambers Law Clerk Limitation: There is a lifetime limitation of four (4) cumulative years of term clerkship service with the United States Courts. Service as a Pro Se Law Clerk is not charged against the four-year lifetime limitation.

Temporary Positions within the Judiciary: This is a full-time temporary position. Expected length of service is one (1) year with possibility of extension. There is a cumulative four (4) year limit on the amount of temporary service that may be served in any single position with the U.S. Courts. This includes prior service as a temporary Pro Se Law Clerk.

Position Overview

The Pro Se Law Clerk provides legal advice and assistance to the Court in connection with pro se prisoner petitions and complaints. Performs substantive screening after filing of all pro se prisoner and inmate petitions and motions, including state habeas corpus petitions, motions to vacate sentence, and civil rights complaints. Drafts appropriate recommendations and orders for the Court's signature. Reviews all complaints, petitions, and pleadings that have been filed to determine issues involved and basis for relief. Performs research, as required, to assist the Court in preparing opinions. Maintains liaison between the Court and litigants. Corresponds with other officials, such as U.S. Attorney, as required. Evaluates present procedures to determine new innovations for increasing efficiencies in handling complaints, petitions, and pleadings. Reviews the docket of pending prisoner and inmate litigation to assure the proper progress of such cases and advises the Court of those cases where action by the Court is appropriate. Compiles statistics and prepares periodic reports, as required, which reflect the status and flow of cases. Identifies problem areas, makes recommendations, and offers solutions, as required by the Court, Administrative Office, and other officials. Keeps abreast of changes in the law to aid the Court in adjusting to new legislation in the pro se prisoner area. Provides information, guidance, and advice to district judges, magistrate judges, and other personnel working in the pro se area. Advises appropriate personnel on the status of cases. Performs other duties as assigned.

U.S. District Court, Southern District of Florida

There are eighteen authorized United States District Judges in the Southern District of Florida. The Court is comprised of United States District Judges, Senior United States District Judges, and United States Magistrate Judges. The District spans a geographical area that encompasses nine counties - its southernmost includes Monroe County and its northernmost includes Indian River County. The Clerk's Office maintains its headquarters in downtown Miami and includes four divisional courthouses.

Appointing Authority and Reporting Relationship

The appointing authority for this position is the Chief U. S. District Judge. This position reports to and works under the direction of the assigned District Judge(s).

Court Preferred Skills

Priority consideration will be given to applicants with one or more of the following:

- Prior legal experience is highly desirable. A minimum of 3 years of previous federal clerkship experience and/or prior litigation experience in the private or public sector gained after law school graduation is preferred.
- Standing within the upper quarter (25%) of the class upon graduation from law school.
- Experience in planning and organizing work, establishing priorities, and working independently.
- An understanding of federal habeas corpus law and proficiency in the use of LEXIS and WESTLAW.
- Outstanding legal research/writing skills. Ability to communicate clearly, concisely, and informatively, both orally and in writing. Experience reviewing documents and extracting data.
- Proficient computer skills, internet research, and word processing skills.

Qualifications/Requirements

To qualify for the position of Pro Se Law Clerk, the applicant must be a law school graduate (or be certified as having completed all law school studies and requirements and merely awaiting conferment of degree) from a law school of recognized standing, and have one or more of the following attributes:

- Standing within the upper third of the law school class from a law school on the approved list of either the American Bar Association or the Association of American Law Schools,
- Experience on the editorial board of a law review of such a school,
- Graduation from such a school with an LLM degree, or
- Demonstrated proficiency in legal studies which in the opinion of the judge is the equivalent of one of the above.

Legal Work Experience

Progressively responsible experience is the practice of law, in legal research, legal administration or equivalent experience received after graduation from law school. Major or substantial legal activities while in military service may be credited, on a month-for-month basis whether before or after graduation, but not to exceed one year if before graduation from law school.
