PRESS RELEASE

The United States District Courts and Bankruptcy Courts for the Southern District of Florida will reopen on Tuesday, September 14th at all locations, and all employees should report to work as scheduled. Scheduled criminal matters will be postponed in the Fort Pierce, Key West, and West Palm Beach divisions, but will proceed according to schedule in Fort Lauderdale and Miami unless parties are otherwise instructed by the Court. Criminal Duty Court will be held at all locations according to the usual schedule.

Jurors summoned for service should call (800) 865-1775 after 2:00 p.m. today for further instructions about when to report for duty.
