IN RE: DUTY JUDGE ASSIGNMENT :
SCHEDULE :

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER 84- 2

The following is a schedule for the next year as to the Miami Duty Judge, whose functions are as follows:

1. Handle all grand jury matters. This includes convening grand juries and ruling on matters affecting those grand juries during each month's duty. Rule 6(f) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure makes provisions for a grand jury return to be taken by either a Federal Judge or a U.S. Magistrate. Whether the District Judge or the Magistrate will take a return will be determined by the judge. Until Rule 6(f) is further construed, a District Judge should handle immunization of witnesses and all matters that pertain to contempt.

2. Preside over emergency naturalization matters.

3. Preside over matters arising from Magistrates' proceedings which are not assigned to a District Judge, including but not limited to applications for reduction of bonds and competency examinations.

4. Swearing in of attorneys to practice.

5. Preside over wire tap applications in matters not assigned to any District Judge.

6. Approval of issuance of warrants of arrest in admiralty cases when the judge in whose division the case is assigned is not in that division or is otherwise unavailable.

MONTHLY ASSIGNMENTS:

November	1984	Judge Spellman
December	1984	Judge Hastings
January	1985	Judge Nesbitt
February	1985	Judge Eaton
March	1985	Judge Aronovitz
April	1985	Judge Hoeveler
May	1985	Judge Kehoe
June	1985	Judge Davis
July	1985	Judge Spellman
August	1985	Judge Hastings
September	1985	Judge Nesbitt

If any judge is out of the district at any time during the assignment month, arrangements should be made with the Chief Judge for a substitute. It shall be the duty of the Clerk of Court to notify all interested parties of any such substitutions.

DONE and ORDERED in Chambers, United States Courthouse, Miami, Dade County, Florida, this 19 day of OCTOBER, 19 84.
